Halloween Poems From AES

Happy Halloween from Mrs. Bryan's sixth grade class. The best poems on Halloween were composed by Jeff Miller, David Page, Valeria Garrett and Patricia Chandler.

The best illustrations awards were won by Lisa Puckett and Patricia Chandler.

Where's My Dear

Oh, how I love Halloween my dear, my dear,
Because it's in October, October
Oh, how I love Halloween my dear, my dear,
Because it's full of spooks, and witches, witches.
Oh, why do I love Halloween, my dear, my dear,
I love to see the sky so gray, gray.
But on Halloween night my dear, my dear,
You'll always get a fright, fright.
And the witches will cackle my dear, my dear
And roar on their wicked brooms, brooms.
Because it's Halloween my dear, my d . . .?

Jeffrey Miller

The Scare Mare

The scare mare is at the haunted house!
If you go in the haunted house,
You'll be scared by the hungry mouse.
He's tall, hairy, and awfully fat,
And looks like a belfry bat.

The skelton is tall, bony, and very lean,
And if you see him you'll shake like a jellybean.
The skelton lives in a bottomless pit,
And if you fall in, you'll be scared out of your wits.

If you meet a bandaged mummy,
I expect that you will act very clumsy.
But if he's tall, dirty and very green,
He will greet you by saing . . .
Happy Halloween!

The Haunted House

One year on Halloween,
I saw a big old house.
Oldest house I have ever seen,
Squeek, Squeek! I saw a mouse.

I decided to go inside.
It was so scary, you know.
The halls were so very wide,
I didn't know where to go.

Then all of a sudden I heard a noise,
I didn't know what it was.
I thought it was those mean boys,
But that was only because . . .

AH H! a scream!
I ran so fast,
I didn't know where I was.

Patricia Chandler

My Ma Is A Witch

My ma made some good ol' stew.
She made me eat it until I grew.
My ma can sew.
My ma can stitch.
My ma can turn into a witch.

Valeria Garrett

Death At My Door

I opened the coffin and out came a bat.
I ran like a skelton and lost my hat.
My house was dark I couldn't find the stand.
I looked down the hall and there stood a man.
He reached and grabbed me by the neck.
I yelled, "I'm sick! I'm sick".

Valeria Garrett

DIAL A RIDE

The Information and Referral Center, a United Way agency is launching a DIAL A RIDE program. This will provide transportation to Senior Citizens (60 and over) and handicapped persons who otherwise would be unable to get to essential services.

These people may reside anywhere in the Central Virginia Planning District. (Cities of Bedford and Lynchburg; counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford and Campbell.)

Essential services include: trips to the doctor, dentist, drug store, grocery store and public service agencies such as Social Security, health and welfare offices, etc.

If you have need of this service, please call 845-8016. If you live outside the Lynchburg telephone exchange, call 845-8016 Collect. We are available to serve you.

CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY SAYS "THANKS"

Edward Atkins, pastor, along with members of the Church of God of Prophecy would like to take this opportunity to say "thanks" to everyone that has donated money and given articles to be sold at yard sales to help raise money on the building fund of the new church now under construction on road # 1010 in Appomattox.

Everything done to help is greatly appreciated. May God bless each one of you.

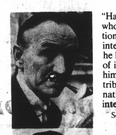
Praise from across America for Virginia's Senator Byrd...

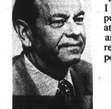


"Harry Byrd is an excellent Senator who represents Virginia and the nation with dedication, fidelity and integrity. He has been consistent; he has been persuasive. He is a man of independent views who expresses himself most forcefully and who contributes much to the welfare of the nation, especially in the field of fiscal integrity."
Senator Mike Mansfield of Montana
Senate Majority Leader

"During the past ten years Harry Byrd has put in long hours and much hard work in behalf of the people of Virginia and of our nation. He is an able, conscientious and effective member of the Senate, and he is highly respected by all of his colleagues on both sides of the aisle..."
Senator Robert Byrd of West Virginia
Assistant Senate Democratic Leader

"Guided by his unyielding dedication to the public interest, Harry Byrd has not only earned wide respect, but he also stands as a shining example to his colleagues and the country."
Senator Robert Griffin of Michigan
Assistant Senate Republican Leader

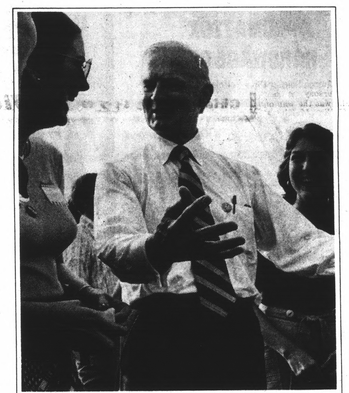
"Few if any members of the Senate are more conscientious or more effective in their efforts than Senator Byrd. He is dedicated not to his own glorification, but to able and business-like representation of his state and his nation.... Virginia and the nation have every reason to be proud of the diligence and effectiveness of Senator Byrd."
Senator Russell B. Long of Louisiana
Chairman, Senate Finance Committee



"In all my years of my public service, I have never seen a more dedicated public servant than Senator Byrd. He attacks every problem in a forthright and courageous manner, without regard for how it might affect his political fortunes."
Senator Herman Talmadge
Democrat of Georgia

"...a great and courageous Virginian who has added distinction to a distinguished family...an American who has devoted all his skill and strength to preserving the best of the American tradition."
Senator James Buckley
Republican of New York

"Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr. makes a significant contribution to the United States Senate and deserves reelection."
Senator Abraham Ribicoff
Democrat of Connecticut



"In our judgment, Harry Byrd's political independence and often lonely stance for his beliefs stand in sharp contrast to what so many voters view as a mess in Washington. Without compromising his basic philosophy, he has become very much a man of his time, because he is viewed as a man of honor and integrity at a time when so many political figures have fallen into disrepute."
